It is a pleasure to announce that the Green Society of India, in association with Indian Exhibition Services are hosting the World Environment Expo and the World Environment Conference 2019. These events coincide with and celebrate the occasion of World Environment Day and are to be held at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi, between the 5th to the 7th of June 2019.

The World Environment Conference (WEC 2019), with the theme "Save Nature – Save Future" serves as a platform to communicate technological advancement in the field of environmental protection while providing the opportunity to Indian professionals to network with global leaders for the environment. The panelists, speakers and participants will together address topics ranging from sustainable development to environmental legislation in India.

Additionally, the World Environment Expo (WEE 2019) is set to be a premium business platform and trade exhibition for national and international innovations in environmental technology and equipment, bringing together players from across the globe, fostering collaborations between exhibitors, policy makers, entrepreneurs and other prospective collaborators.

I am certain that these events shall bring together all the relevant stakeholder groups to deliberate on the various global issues threatening our environment, forging the way towards a sustainable future. I express my heartiest congratulations to the organizers for bringing together this impressive gathering of international expertise and providing these platforms to help address through the use of technology, the very real threats to our environment. Events of this prominence help communicate the problem of environmental degradation, and its potential solutions to a much wider range of audiences and UN Environment India, offers its full support.

Atul Bagai.

I'm glad to know about such platform called World Environment Expo (WEE 2019) - International Exhibition on Environment Protection Technology, Green Innovation, Clean & Green Energy, Eco-friendly Products, Recycling, Water & Waste Management concurrently with World Environment Conference (WEC 19) organized by Green Society of India and Indian Exhibition Services

This Exhibition will surely offer a unique opportunity to manufacturers and suppliers from different states of India to showcase the latest technology in a common platform. The time is indeed ripe to display some of these developments and equip ourselves of those taking place beyond our shores, for interaction within the Industry.

I'm positive that the show would open up opportunities between various segments and players of the environmental technology industry. The presence of leading manufacturers and suppliers under one roof enables the Industry Professionals, traders, and all concerned to interact on the current trend, technologies and identify the need of tomorrow.

I offer my compliments to Industry leaders, participants, supporting organizations and trade media for their cooperation to the organizers of World Environment Expo (WEE 2019).
